

The Stockwell Partnership, a community-led regeneration charity, is recruiting two part time female advocates to increase our language support to families of children under 5 in Lambeth.

2 x Female Somali Advocates: 14 hours per week £22,000-£24,840 pro rata pa inclusive (£8,800 - £9,936 for 2 days a week)

This post is deemed exempt under the Sex Discrimination Act s7.2(e) You will provide generic advocacy support to migrant families in Lambeth and encourage them to make full use of services offered by Lambeth's Children's Centres and other support facilities, including ESOL classes.

You have a good understanding of both written and oral English and are fluent in Somali. You have experience of working with migrant families, are sympathetic to the needs of parents/carers with young children and have a good knowledge of the health and welfare issues that they face. You will know about the Every Child Matters Agenda and Team Around the Child.

Both posts require an enhanced CRB certificate, 2 written references and a health statement. Interviews will take place on 13 July 2009.

For an application pack send a large 1st Class stamped C4 self addressed envelope to John McCay, Stockwell Partnership, 157 South Lambeth Road, London SW8 1XN. Closing date for completed applications: 12.00 noon on 3 July 2009.

Stockwell Partnership

